There was much uncertainty among the officers and members of the local militia companies on Thursday evening regarding the participation by the militia in this part of the state at the funeral of Governor Lilley. No word has been received by either company early in the evening, but the following despatch gives the orders of Adjutant General Cole which were issued Thursday night:

Hartford, April 22.—Adjutant General Cole issued his orders to the militia of the state, the different bodies of which will be on duty at Governor Lilley's funeral here and in Waterbury. The orders are as follows:

The following troops are designed for escort duty in Hartford: First infantry, First, Second, Third, Fifth, Tenth and Thirteenth companies, coast artillery corps; Eastery A (F. A.) dismounted: Hartford detachment signal corps; Second and Fourth divisions, naval militia.

At Waterbury: Second company; Troop A. cavalry: Fourth, Sixth, Seventh, Eighth, Ninth, Eleventh, Twelith and Fourteenth companies, coast artillery corps; First separate company, and these officers of his command as he may desire, for duty with these troops. The commanding officer, coast artillery corps, will report to the adjutant general for duty. The commanding officer, First infantry, will be in command of the escort on duty in Hartford and the escort on duty in Waterbury. The orders are as follows:

The commanding officer, First infantry, will be in command of the escort on duty in Waterbury, and these officers are directed to issue the necessary orders for this dury, and these officers of his command as he may desire, for duty with these troops. The commanding officer, First infantry, will be in command of the escort on duty in Hartford and the escort on duty in Waterbury. The commanding officer, First infantry, will be in command of the escort on duty in Waterbury. The covernor Foot and Horse Guards will be on duty in both cites.

ACTED UPON BY SUGGESTION. That Thought May Produce Blister of Hand, is Medical Fact.

It is not generally known that thought ray produce a blister on the hand or an ulcer on the foot, as well as many other actual physical changes in one's organism which are little short of miraculous. I have no doubt that St. Francis of Assist received the stigmata of the crucifixion on his hands and feet as historically described. I have no doubt, because its possibility has been put to the proof within the past few years, and by a friend of mine whom I will name. Prof. Krafft Ebing of Vienna told a young woman he would place a small fly plaster upon her which would produce a blister in a few hours. He actually only put a postage stamp upon the skin, without her knowledge, and covered it over so securely with bandages that she could not interfere with it. The blister appeared as suggested.-Frederick Peterson, M. D., in Collier's.

Pimples, Rash, Eruptions, Etc., Quickedy.

Since its discovery one year ago, poslam, the new skin remedy, has, in its extraordinary accomplishments, exceeded the most sanguine expectations of the eminent specialist who gave it to the world. It has bured thousands of cases of eczema and eradicated facial and other disfigurements of years standing. The terribic itching attending eczema is stopped with the first application, giving proof of its curative properties at the very outset.

In less serious skin affections, such as pimples, rash, herpes, blackheads aone, barber's itch, etc. results show after an overnight application, only a small quantity being required to effect a cure. Those who use poslam for these minor skin troubles can now avail thomselves of the special 50-cent package, recently adopted to meet such needs. Both the 50-cent package and the regular $2 jar may now be obtained in Norwich at Lee & Osgood's, Smith's and other leading drug stores. Poslam is also on sale in Putnam at Larue's; in Danielson at Woodward's, and in Willimantic at Chesebro's.

Samples for experimental purposes may be had free of charge by writing direct to the Emergency Laboratories, $2 West Twenty-fifth street, New York City.

Reading for Improvement. Any girl with an ordinary public school education can do something to improve her mind a little every day. She can read a page of some good book-a book of travel, or a book of history, or a book of poems, or a book of essays-and she can think of what she has read, and by copying in a blank book a few sentences or lines which impress her, she can improve her knowledge of spelling and phrasing, so that she will acquire after a year of such practice a better education than many high school graduates possess. Any librarian will advise an ambitious girl what books to read for self-culture. To read a novel hurriedly, just for the sake of knowing "how It comes out," is only a waste of time and brain power. Good novels are worth reading, but they should leave something in the mind besides the story, or they are better left unread.

Always Light in the Sky.

"The sky," says the Scientific Amer ican, "is never dark. This, however is not due to the sun, but to the stars The Milky Way is above the horizon in summer in our latitude, and it gives a great deal of light by night, enough to make the night sky of that time brighter than when it is not a par of our night sky, as is the case in winter. Then, too, the stars which cannot be seen by the unaided eye give us much light. The stars which are not visible to the eye give more light than those which are visible."

No longer do a ring, a thimble, and a piece of money answer for a fortune telling cake for girls. No, indeed! The day is long past when marriage, spinsterhood and rich inheritance were the only careers open to the sex. A twentleth-century cake must have a tiny giass bottle standing for either a doctor or a trained nurse, a little china doll meaning a teacher, and as many other symbols as the ingenuity of the CRANSTON'S dainty styles are tho best, they say, And you don't have much to pay.

TO THE Public Spirited Residents

Shall we make the Celebration of our 250th Anniversary worthy of our Town?

OF NORWICH:

It depends upon liberal subscription to the fund for paying the expenses of the occasion. Prompt subscriptions will enable the committees to plan at once for interesting features. Will every corporation, business firm and individual call on one of the committee mentioned below or send check to CHARLES W. GALE, Treasurer of the committee, before May 1st? Costello Lippitt, Norwich Savings
